VINTAGE CONDITIONS

With decent rainfall falling at the exact right time throughout 2020, the vineyards in Eden Valley were keen to bounce back after three dry & low yielding years. The weather remained mild right throughout the growing season and harvest period, producing Eden Valley whites of incredible quality & amazing intensity. Varietal typicity, purity and finesse are all the hallmarks of the 2021 vintage in Eden Valley, this will go down as one of the greats.

Following cold fermentation in stainless steel tanks, the wine spent approximately 4 weeks on yeast lees before clarification and bottling.
